Journalism and Online Speech: Case Follow-Up Collection

9 October 2026

REPORT COLLECTION / INDEX

Procedural developments and verified outcomes

Independent research based on user-supplied TrialWatch materials

COLLECTION GUIDE

This collection contains 21 independent English updates: 20 case reports and one PECA legal-reform report. The 24 supplied PDFs include three duplicate copies. Coverage ends on 9 October 2026; individual reports identify their last verified event and any unresolved outcome. The reports are independent research, not CFJ or TrialWatch publications.

HOW TO READ THE STATUS

Quashing and acquittal are judicial outcomes. A pardon or release does not by itself establish that a conviction was erased. International findings and registered complaints are separated from domestic implementation. An unknown appellate result is stated as unknown. Later separate prosecutions and professional updates are identified in each report.

ONLINE SPEECH

01. Thailand v. Wuth Boonlert and Samak Donnapee

Acquittal upheld on appeal; later separate defamation case involving Wuth settled
Dated update covered: 26 September 2023
The latest verified decision in the original Chaiwat prosecution is the Court of Appeal's 22 December 2020 acquittal. The 26 September 2023 event concerns a distinct case involving Wuth and another defendant, not Samak. No Supreme Court disposition or certificate of finality in the original proceedings was verified.

02. Kazakhstan v. Alnur Ilyashev

Original restrictions reportedly completed in part; UN remedy outstanding; separate 2026 investigation
Dated update covered: 4 September 2026
Freedom Now explicitly reports release from house arrest on 17 April 2023. A 30 April 2025 interview says the five-year public-activity ban was due to expire later that year, not that expiry had already been formally confirmed. September 2026 reporting describes release after questioning in a separate fraud investigation as a witness with a right to defence and an undertaking to appear. No current custodial order or domestic reversal of the 2020 conviction was verified.

03. Russian Federation v. Alexander Pichugin

ECtHR found freedom-of-expression violation; domestic reversal and payment unverified
Dated update covered: 13 November 2025
The ECtHR's final committee judgment addresses the original speech conviction and a separate protest case. The EUR 10,000 award covers the applicant's combined findings, not exclusively the speech prosecution. A foreign-agent designation on 7 November 2025 is separately reported. No new prison sentence, domestic acquittal, or payment of the Strasbourg award was verified.

04. Section 20 of Pakistan's PECA

2022 partial invalidation; 2025 statutory expansion; enforcement verified in 2026
Dated update covered: 16 September 2026
Latest located court event is Bilal Ghauri's conditional post-arrest bail, reported on 17 September 2026. The 2022 ruling pre-dates and is discussed in the original. It does not establish repeal of all Section 20. No final merits disposition of the 2025 constitutional challenges or definitive appellate treatment of the 2022 ruling was verified.

05. Tunisia v. Emna Chargui

Conviction appealed; subsequent appellate disposition unverified
Dated update covered: 13 July 2020
The dated conviction is taken from the original report. The original also confirms an appeal and asylum in Germany by June 2021, without precise event dates. No later case-disposing order was verified through 9 October 2026. Amnesty's 15 July 2020 article describes sentencing 'yesterday', conflicting with the original's 13 July date.

CRIMINALIZING REPORTING

06. Bangladesh v. Shahidul Alam

High Court quashed case on 7 August 2025; subsequent appellate position unverified
Dated update covered: 7 August 2025
Quashing is corroborated by local court reporting and Amnesty. No later State appeal, leave application, stay or appellate disposition was verified. The 2022 appellate proceedings concerned an earlier challenge and must not be mistaken for an appeal from the 2025 order.

07. Belarus v. Katsiaryna Andreyeva and Daria Chultsova

Chultsova released in 2022; Andreyeva pardoned and released in March 2026
Dated update covered: 24 March 2026
Latest dated follow-up is PEN International's 24 March response to the 19 March release. Chultsova's September 2022 release followed completion of her term; Andreyeva's 2026 release followed a pardon after a separate treason conviction. Neither event establishes that either original conviction was quashed.

08. Georgia v. Mzia Amaglobeli

Reported imprisoned; Supreme Court declined cassation; ECHR complaints filed
Dated update covered: 21 September 2026
21 September is the publication date of a CMIS report covering September 2025-August 2026, not a new detention order. Latest verified domestic criminal disposition: Supreme Court nonadmission on 4 March 2026. A conviction-related ECHR application was reportedly filed 26 June and registered 3 July. No release or ECHR merits judgment was verified through 9 October.

09. Guatemala v. Jose Ruben Zamora

Under house arrest; renewed annulment and retrial order; foreign travel refused
Dated update covered: 8 October 2026
National Press Club's 8 October 2026 statement explicitly confirms ongoing house arrest. Latest substantive judicial development located is the 13 August refusal to lift his exit restriction. July finality applies to the particular withdrawn appeal over substitute measures, not to the criminal prosecution or retrial.

10. Hong Kong SAR v. Bao Choy Yuk Ling

Both convictions quashed by Court of Final Appeal in June 2023
Dated update covered: 6 March 2026
Latest related judicial event is a separate March 2026 judicial review of the revised vehicle-records policy. It did not reinstate Choy's convictions. Her criminal appeal was allowed on 5 June 2023 in FACC 2/2023, [2023] HKCFA 12.

11. Kazakhstan v. Aigul Utepova

UN individual communication registered; last confirmed pending in 2025; present restrictions unverified
Dated update covered: 2025
Latest verified procedural status appears in TrialWatch's submission for the June-July 2025 Human Rights Committee session: Aigul Utepova v. Kazakhstan, No. 4903/2023, pending. Exact submission day is unstated. This does not establish a UN merits decision, domestic reversal, release, termination of activity restrictions, or removal of banking restrictions as of October 2026.

12. Malaysia v. Malaysiakini and Steven Gan

Company's contempt conviction left in place after review dismissal; Gan acquitted
Dated update covered: 29 March 2022
The latest verified case-disposing event is rejection of the company's review application, not a new conviction of Gan. Payment of the original fine was reported. No subsequent reversal was verified; this does not independently establish exhaustion of every conceivable remedy.

13. Belarus v. Marina Zolotova

Pardoned and released in December 2025; living in exile in 2026
Dated update covered: 16 September 2026
Latest related event is the release of later TUT.BY co-defendant Liudmila Chekina on 16 September 2026, not a new disposition for Zolotova. Zolotova's latest substantive personal account located is dated 7 August 2026. Her pardon and release do not establish that either conviction was overturned.

14. Morocco v. Hajar Raissouni et al.

Pardoned in 2019; no subsequent acquittal or vacatur verified
Dated update covered: 2 November 2022
The latest located subject-specific follow-up is a published interview, not a new judicial disposition. The pardon and release occurred on 16 October 2019 and were already recorded in the original report. The record located through 9 October 2026 does not establish that the convictions were subsequently quashed.

15. Morocco v. Omar Radi II

Cassation rejected in 2023; pardoned and released in 2024, vacatur unverified
Dated update covered: 6 October 2026
The latest dated follow-up is an interview publication. The last verified change to custody is pardon and release on 29 July 2024. PEN's March 2025 profile still reported uncertainty over quashing. The pardon is not described here as an acquittal, and the disposition of civil compensation is unverified.

16. Morocco v. Omar Radi I

2020 suspended sentence; appeal filed, later disposition not verified
Dated update covered: 1 October 2026
The 1 October 2026 event is a new Amnesty investigation concerning Radi, not a ruling in the tweet prosecution. The last verified proceeding in this particular case is the 17 March 2020 conviction and notice of appeal recorded in the original. Radi's July 2024 pardon and release in the separate later case cannot be assumed to have cleared this conviction.

17. Russian Federation v. Svetlana Prokopyeva

ECtHR freedom-of-expression victory; later separate foreign-agent fine under appeal
Dated update covered: 15 May 2026
A final ECtHR committee judgment on 22 January 2026 found an Article 10 violation concerning the original conviction and awarded EUR 7,500. Domestic reversal and payment were not verified. The latest verified separate proceeding is a 15 May 2026 report confirming receipt of an appeal against a 30,000-ruble foreign-agent-label fine; an 8 June hearing was scheduled, but its outcome was not verified. Historical terrorism-list removal and foreign-agent designation are different events.

18. Turkey v. Cansu Piskin

Ten-month sentence with five-year deferred pronouncement; closure unverified
Dated update covered: 7 May 2019
This date is the last verified event in Piskin's own prosecution, not the latest appearance of her name online. Later reporting identifies her as an observer or author in other journalists' cases. No objection decision, activation of sentence, dismissal after supervision, acquittal, or international ruling in her own case was verified through 9 October 2026.

19. Uganda v. Moses Bwayo

Charge dismissed in August 2020; no reinstatement verified
Dated update covered: 10 December 2025
The latest verified follow-up is an official film-program announcement crediting Bwayo, not a court outcome. Dismissal for want of prosecution on 10 August 2020 was already in the original. His April 2024 first-person account places his move to the United States in March 2022 and describes seeking asylum; a grant was not verified. A same-name Ugandan civil case is an unconfirmed lead, not an attributed lawsuit or judgment.

CITIZEN JOURNALISM

20. Malaysia v. Dian Abdullah

Guilty plea and RM 10,000 fine reported in December 2021
Dated update covered: 21 December 2021
Personal-case event: sentencing on 21 December 2021, following a guilty plea on 6 December. Fine payment, default imprisonment and later appeal were not verified. Section 233 developments through 6 February 2026 concern separate constitutional litigation and do not establish reversal of Dian's conviction.

21. Tunisia v. Myriam Bribri

December 2021 conviction appealed; appellate result unverified
Dated update covered: 9 October 2022
Latest dated follow-up is an NGO statement announcing an expected 12 October 2022 ruling, not verification that the ruling occurred. Sources disagree on the December conviction and appeal dates. Amnesty describes a suspended custodial sentence; earlier sources describe provisional liberty. No current custody status is established.
